

Idaho Children's ART CONTEST 2018

“My Superpowers.....”

THE CONTEST:

Over 3300 children ages 3-18 participate in Community Based Developmental Disability programs and services in Idaho. This art contest celebrates those children. This is your chance to express yourself.

THE INSTRUCTIONS:

Draw a picture, compose a poem or write a short essay about “Your Superpowers.”

What are your special powers? What superpowers would you like to have?

THE PRIZES:

Top entries will receive prizes

THE RULES:

- All children participating must live in Idaho and be 3-18 years old.
- Entries may be submitted on the attached entry form or on a separate sheet of 8.5x11 white paper, unlined for drawings. If the entry form is not used, be sure to include your name, age, address, phone number and email.
- Use colored pencils, markers, pencil, ink or crayons on your drawing. Make your art as big and bold as possible and include a statement that explains what you've drawn.
- Poems should be 20 lines or less.
- Essays should be 200 words or less.
- Entries must be original and unpublished.
- Winners will be notified in mid-June and all judgments are final.
- We reserve the right of first publication and use of all writings and drawings.
- The entries will also be displayed at statewide Developmental Disability conferences/events.
